

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cyber Security Division Rated “Exceptional” for Thirteenth Consecutive Quarter by McAfee

Allen Corporation of America (Allen) is highly-regarded for its technical expertise in the McAfee security solutions, and has provided architecture, design, deployment, and operations services for large, complex enterprise and critical infrastructure networks. Allen was one of the first partners certified by McAfee to deliver implementation services utilizing the McAfee professional services methodology (McAfee Express Services). Allen and McAfee executed a Mutual Subcontractor Professional Services Agreement in 2006, and McAfee has since utilized Allen on a large number of services engagements in the United States, Canada, Mexico, and India. In McAfee’s 2016 evaluation of all of its North American professional services partners, Allen Corporation was ranked first in quality of services provided for the entire year. Allen recently received its first rating from McAfee in 2017 and received a perfect score and another “Exceptional” rating, extending its impressive evaluations for thirteen quarters in a row, an accomplishment unmatched by any other McAfee partner.
